

The Foghorn

JANUARY 2011

Commodore's
Comments
Doug Werber

Greetings Navy Yacht Club Members:

I hope this notice finds all of you in good health and good cheer as we prepare to ring in the New Year. It is hard to believe that the Commodore's Ball was nearly a month ago, and that we will be starting the 2011 season next week.

The January GMM will be held on January 6, 2011 at the Crows Nest. The Bridge will meet at 5:00. The Social Hour begins at 6:00, followed by one of our favorite meals: Popeye's Chicken, Potato Salad, Cole Slaw, and Brownies. The price, per-person is $5.00. Beverages are: beer and wine--$2.00; pop/soda--$1.00.

Among New Business will be voting on Honorary Members, and your Member-at-Large.

See you then!

Kathy Champagne

HAPPY NEW YEAR !

Don't Fret - if you haven't had the opportunity to visit the 150 ft Tall Ship Peacemaker... You still have one more chance...the boat and crew have extended their stay in Pensacola through January 9th offering free tours of the boat from 10:00 AM to 7:00 PM (and until 9:00 PM on Friday and Saturday)

Website "Hacked!"

Many of you probably encountered problems accessing the club's website during the first week of December. The reason was that the company that hosts our site, GH1, was hacked by someone. All of the sites GH1 hosts were affected. I noticed the problem while I was in Orlando on business. When I contacted GH1's Tech Support they said they were "working aggressively" to resolve the problem. But the hacker had deleted the home pages for all of the sites GH1 hosts. They asked if I could upload a copy of our home page. Because I was away I didn't have access to the files. The guys at tech support managed to find an old copy of our home page from 2007 and were able to get the site back up and running so that members could at least navigate around the site. All of the problems have been resolved, I was able to upload the 2010 homepage, and when I spoke to the manager at GH1 they have added several new layers of protection they hope will avoid similar problems in the future..

On January 20, 2011, NAS Pensacola will conduct its opening ceremony commemorating 100 years of Naval Aviation. The Centennial of Naval Aviation is a year long, event driven celebration held throughout the United States. It is intended to commemorate the historic contributions that men, women, and machines have made to Naval Aviation. The hour long kick-off event will be held at the historic pavilion located in the old Navy Yard on board the instillation. There will be a social following the ceremony at the Mustin Beach Club. Anyone who is or was a member of Naval Aviation, both officer and enlisted is encouraged to attend.
