Hello All,

Rod West, Judy Czarnecki, Kim Edens and I attended the GYA Winter Meeting at Biloxi Yacht Club January 7-8. On Saturday the GYA Racing Schedule 2012 was "finalized", which is listed below. There are no anticipated changes to the NYCP 2012 Schedule.

GYA Commodore John Matthews, NYCP and PYC, presided over the Board of Directors Meeting on Sunday. John turned the "helm" of the GYA over to Commodore Pete O'Neal-BucYC, as he moves on to serve as Commodore of the Florida Commodore's Association for 2012. NYCP is very fortunate to have among its membership such an outstanding leader in the Yachting world.

One major object of NYCP this year has been to identify accomplished sailors among the NASP School Commands, and to provide racing opportunities for them with any club seeking crew members on Pensacola Bay.

NYCP has been fortunate to count two such young men on our racing teams: Andrew Shefter and Charlie Hobbs, both Air Force flight students at NASP. Charlie will be entering his final phase of flight training this month on the T-1. Andrew will be winged on February 3, 2012, and was just assigned to the F-15 at Seymour-Johnson AFB in North Carolina.

NYCP thanks these young men for serving, and wishes them God Speed in the pursuit of their careers.
