

The Foghorn - January

Sunsets and sailing days ahead.....

Happy New Year!

I hope everyone had a wonderful Christmas season and have brought the new year in, joyously. A new year is a fresh start on the calendar, full of hope and potential.

The Bridge is fast at work on this year's schedule. The annual schedule will be posted on the website soon, but for the next couple months, we are planning some fun activities.

January 11, I hope you will join us and come Meet the Commodore. We have some great games and activities planned and I would love to be able to share with you some of our ideas for this year.

February 8, we will be hosting a Valentine's Dinner - invitations will be going out through your email. We WILL NEED RSVPs for this event so that we know how many tables to set for.

We have some great changes in our sailing/boating schedule this year. All three of the Trilogy races have been moved to the Spring and the WAVE will also be in Spring. These changes were made to move these events out of the hot, ridiculous weather we tend to have in the late Summer and Fall months.

Health and happiness to you and yours in the new year ahead,

Mia

Attention on Deck!

2024 is going to be a good year for NYCP members.

We are aiming to have fun, fun, fun. January's meeting will feature Meet the New Commodore. (and Vice Commodore).

Everyone is invited and I hope to get to know all of you better.

Be there! If you like to sail and have no boat we can help get you on one.

Talk to Mia or myself.

Good day sailors!

Happy new year everyone, not a lot of racing going on right now, don't forget about the Pensacola Bay Sailors Awards Banquet on January 19 at PYC.

First race for NYCP will be in March, I'll be in touch to get volunteers to help.
